Pre-Reading questions

Answer the questions.

1. Do you eat fruit every day?
2. What are your favourite vegetables?
3. Do you like burgers?
4. How often do you eat ice cream?
5. What can you cook?

Reading & Writing

Read this. Then answer the questions.

Every day you must eat the right food to be strong and well. Your body needs lots of fruit and vegetables.

It's a very good idea to eat some fruit for breakfast every morning, or to have an egg with bread and a glass of milk. Foods, like milk and cheese, help to make your teeth strong. It's good to eat some meat (but not a lot). Fish is very good for you, too. Children mustn't eat a lot of sweets, chocolate, cakes and ice cream. All these are very bad for your teeth and they make you fat.

You must always eat lunch every day. A salad or a sandwich for lunch is very good for you.

A. Read the text. Then write some words to complete the sentences about this text. You can use 1, 2 or 3 words.

1. You must always eat good food to be strong.

He sees the woman who works at the shop and he says to her:

"Excuse me, can you give me that nice red hat?"

"Here you are," says the woman.

"Oh, OK, thanks. Now I want a T-shirt for my little brother, Bill. Do you have any?"

"Yes," says the woman. "We have lots of T-shirts."

The woman shows Ben some T-shirts. He likes a blue and white T-shirt.

"That one is great!"

"Is your brother fat or thin?" asks the woman.

"He's very thin. He's thinner than me."

"OK. So this T-shirt is good for him."

"Brilliant! It's very nice! Thank you!" says Ben.

Ben is very happy now. He buys the T-shirt. Then, he goes to the bookshop which is next to the clothes shop. He wants to find a present for his mother and father. He wants to buy a nice book for them.
